

event PRODUCTION

imagination services

How do you wow your guests, hit a homerun with your message, communicate your theme, and make your event stand out? The answer is with Infinity Park Event Center's production capabilities. Let us surround your guests with priceless sophistication to produce an unforgettable show. This is where imagination can become reality.

Check out the video, audio and lighting capabilities, then select which video package best suits your event needs.

video packages

Infinity Park Event Center's International Ballroom features unique giant screens that wrap 360-degrees around the room, ideal for featuring your program and theme elements—everything from graphic images to landscape scenes, sponsor logos to committee names, photos to videos. Our staff of experienced professionals will customize your event, captivating your guests' attention and delivering your message in dramatic fashion.

classic video package

package price	included
---------------	----------

deluxe video package

package price	$2,750
---------------	---------

premium video package

package price	$3,600
---------------	---------

custom video package

package price	custom
---------------	--------

event production

video defined: classic package

Our Classic Video Package is included in your rental fee and features the following:

- use of our front screen and hd projector for a static image provided by you
- our side-screen led lights will create a color wash on the side screens, creating a warm glow to match your décor or theme; remains the same throughout your event.
- custom digital signage
 - » you provide one image to display throughout your event
 - » digital image file supplied by you video defined: deluxe package

When you upgrade to our Deluxe Package, you receive all of the features in the Classic Package plus the ability to have your custom images on the side and rear screens:

- Infinity Park production staff programs your images on the screens for one constant look throughout your event
- our 80 foot-long side screens, operated by Infinity Park production staff, are the ideal spot to highlight important elements.
 - » sponsors, partners
 - » images, graphics, photo loop
 - » powerpoint, prezi, video loops
- digital signage around the venue
 - » digital image files supplied by you video defined: premium package

To get the full impact at your event for your sponsors, guests and stakeholders, upgrade to our Premium Video Package. With this package you get all of the features of the Classic and Deluxe plus our staff will program up to 5 different looks for your event.

- custom presentation of your images on all screens in the ballroom
 - » programmed and directed by the Infinity Park production crew
 - » graphic, video or presentation files for all elements supplied by you video defined: custom package

Have a one-of-a-kind event? Let us create a customized, unique production package. Our team of experienced production professionals will consult with you to create a customized look and feel for your event. We will create, select and program images to match your vision, program all of our projection technology to move and flow with the program of your event and wow your guests with visual images.

event production

lighting defined

Your venue rental fee includes set stage lights plus our set house lighting system to illuminate your audience and guests. These LED lights provide a beautiful and warm glow in the room. We can also create a custom lighting setting for your event (additional fees apply):

- moving LED colored theatrical lights
- pin spot lights and star lights
- LED perimeter lights
- custom gobos
- specialty accent lights
- custom color on our expansive corner curved screens, complimenting your theme décor

audio defined

Infinity Park provides the following audio components for your event as a part of the venue rental fee:

- 1 microphone at podium on stage
- ballroom house sound
- line arrays and floor speakers
- digital audio mixer and technician

Additional audio features and services are available upon request for an additional fee:

- additional microphones
- additional audio technicians
- additional stage monitors
- additional floor speakers
- additional sub mixers on the floor
- audio recording to flash drive